IN & AROUND

*There is Something for Everyone.
Experience It!*

Located in the vibrant Lehigh Valley, less than 90 miles west of New York City and 50 miles north of Philadelphia, Allentown is Pennsylvania's third-largest, and fastest-growing, city. Nicknamed "the Queen City," it is home to three historic districts and one of the best park systems in the United States—and was recently honored as a finalist for a global award for excellence.

In the early 1700s, the land now occupied by the city of Allentown and Lehigh County was a wilderness of scrub oak where tribes of Native Americans fished and hunted for game. The land that was to become Allentown was part of a 5,000-acre plot William Allen purchased on 1735.

Set amid gentle hills and charming countrysides, Lehigh Valley, Pa. is home to Allentown, Bethlehem, and Easton, as well as dozens of small towns and picturesque boroughs, parks, trails, and waterways.
