

SILGAN PROFILES OF SUCCESS

JOEL TIEMEIER

Assistant Superintendent

Joel started his adventure with Silgan in 1997 as an Operator with a background in automotive mechanics. A Line Mechanic position became available after a couple months and Joel was promoted, eventually learning all of the technologies within the plant. In 2016 he completed the Management Trainee program and became a Production Supervisor and was promoted to Assistant Superintendent in 2019. In his spare time Joel likes modifying and rebuilding race cars.

BILL BOWEN

Line Mechanic

Bill started at the Ft. Madison plant in November of 1995 as an Inspector/Packer fresh out of high school and promoted to Operator one year later. After two and a half years and extensive on-the-job training he promoted to Line Mechanic where he has spent the last 20+ years as an ALCAN mechanic. On his off days Bill enjoys camping, traveling and spending time with his family.

ABOUT SILGAN CONTAINERS

We are the Leading Manufacturer of Metal Food Containers

Over 20 Manufacturing Plants in the U.S.A

Technology Center

Corporate Office

As the largest provider of metal food packaging in the U.S.A, Silgan Containers is trusted by America's most respected brands. Our steel and aluminum containers and traditional and convenience ends are used by food processors to package fruit, vegetables, meat, coffee, soups, sauces, seafood, and pet food.

Silgan Containers purchased the Fort Madison plant from the Armour-Dial Corporation in December 1988. This 152,000 square foot facility houses the latest in draw-redraw and converted end technology for the annual production of about 800 million cans. Fort Madison also produces nearly 4 billion converted ends annually. The plant currently employs 140 full-time employees and is growing.

Silgan Fort Madison is the proud recipient of the Fort Madison Chamber of Commerce 2017 Manufacturer of the Year Award.

IN & AROUND FT. MADISON

*There is Something for Everyone.
Experience It!*

Fort Madison, Iowa (pop. 11,000) is located along the Mighty Mississippi River in Iowa's southeast corner. Fort Madison is situated between picturesque bluffs and one of the widest portions of the river. It is rich in history, culture, and a center for business, commerce, and industry.

The city was established around the historic Fort Madison (1808-1813), which was the first permanent U.S. military fortification on the Upper Mississippi. The fort was built to oversee the newly acquired Louisiana Purchase territories and control trade, and pacify Native Americans.

Fort Madison is now home to innovative and sustainable industries, historic districts, and various transportation options, including Scenic Byways, historic rail lines, air, and river access. Fort Madison is Always Moving!
