SILGAN LEADERSHIP

The U.S. remains a major force in global manufacturing. In fact, if the U.S. manufacturing sector were its own economy, it would be the seventh largest in the world.

Today's manufacturing has evolved into a high tech environment and is very different from what earlier generations have experienced.

Commitment to excellence and teamwork position Silgan Containers as the leading metal food package company in the U.S.A. Our doors are wide open to motivated individuals who seek opportunities for advancement in both role and responsibility in a stable industry. Join the team the most prestigious food companies rely on to safely deliver and protect foods' nutrition and quality.
